Brothers in Arms, Feature Motion

To satisfy the eager public during the celebration it was necessary to give six performances daily, every one be-ing well attended, many being obliged ing well attended, many being obliged to stand. The powerful war picture, Brothers in Arms, as well as the splendid patriotic song. The Flag That's Yours and Mine, by Mr. Delaney, and Sailor Boy, by Miss Bradley, all came in for their share of the generous applause. Madam Morelle pleased every the present by her artistic condition of planes. Madam archie placed every one present by her artistic rendition of the difficult Italian song, O Light Di-vine. This, strong bill remains for Wednesday only, an entire new bill be-ing presented Thursday.
